Sir,

General Fletcher has a note of hand against me for twenty dollars which I engaged to procure him an order on you—

As my account against the state has not as yet been allowed — wish you to take my note of General Fletcher, which I will discharge before the rising of the Legislature — Indisposition of body prevents my waiting upon you personally —

Sir

I received yours of the 15th this minute by merchant Dan'l Willard informing me that he had seen a Letter at L. Scots Directed Home I immediately went in search of said Letter from you concerning the person which Capt. Matthews rode I went immediately to Capt. Nicholls to enquire, the Lieut. Commanding Station Letter had any thing of him, he describes as follows (viz) a Small Burning a little on the Nose, 3 white feet, most of her face white, lost her right Eye, a white Stripe round one of her ears, which he does not recollect but thinks it to be the right one— the prisoner is yet safe, Barbary is very ill & has been for 3 Days past, the rest of us are all in health, I have refused to sell any more Brandy out, the demand for Liq.r is great Rum being none yet in Town, A. Faulkner has not yet applied with any Cask nor any of the persons on board— I have taken some Cask but (not so much as perhaps you will think I ought to have) I wish you to come home as soon as possible to relieve me from my Tour of Duty, I have no one to assist me which makes it fatiguing— I am, Sir, Yours with the

Sentiment of respect

Dear Sir

Dartmouth 19th April 1794

I am informed by Mr Saml Allen that you wish to dispose of your half of the Forge with which you would purchase — I cannot at present determine whether the half I now own improved according to my expectation which I can in two weeks determine I should be glad to purchase if we can agree on the price & pay —

I am Sir your Obedt & Humble Servt
